

Low Impact Development (LID) techniques use a cost effective and integrated approach to site design, stormwater management, and water conservation to protect the natural terrain and hydrology

SAVE THE DATE!

The Massachusetts' 1st LID Conference for the Home Building Community and an LID Vendor Exhibit

Thursday, April 5, 8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

- What Developers Need to Know - LID and its Benefits
- LID Site Design, Stormwater Management, and Model Bylaw
- Navigating Local Waters: Bringing Communities Onboard
- Green Guidelines and Energy Star/LEED
- Cost of Conventional Development vs. LID
- Several LID project case studies, presented by developers

Registration includes Vendor Exhibit, continental breakfast, lunch, and break refreshments.

More information and location will be posted soon at <http://www.mass.gov/czm/calendar.htm> and <http://www.mass.gov/envir/sgtk.htm>

The conference is sponsored by the Massachusetts Executive Office of Energy and the Environment, National Association of Home Builders Research Center, Massachusetts Home Builders Association, Massachusetts Office of Coastal Zone Management, and the US Environmental Protection Agency.